Zone-winning Crusaders off to Provincials
F. G. Miller Crusaders senior boys volleyball team brought home the zone banner from Vermilion this weekend, something which hasn't been done by a F. G. Miller team since 1995. The boys went into the playoffs in second place, losing in the round robin only to J. R. Robson, who they would meet again in the final. An intense nailbiter of a final saw FGM losing the first set 25-20 and battling hard in the second set, coming up on the winning end with a final score of 25-22. This sent the two teams into a final set which was an incredible point-for-point match, but Elk Point pulled ahead in the end winning 15-11. The boys are off to provincials in Camrose this weekend. The team and coaching staff are, back row, left to right: Jonathon Randall, Evan Ockerman, Corbin Ockerman, Michael Habiak, Devon Nazarchuk, Troy Gratton, John Webber; front, left to right: Noah Brosseau, Justin Gratton, Nick Anderson, Dallas Bristow, MJ Espinosa. Noah Brosseau, Justin Gratton and his dad, coach Troy Gratton are from Bonnyville and joined the team due to lack of numbers in both schools.

FCSS numbers up, director tells council

VICKI BROOKER

"All our numbers are up," County of St. Paul and Elk Point FCSS director Janice Fodchuk told Elk Point town council last Monday. "Our bus to the Seniors Festival was filled at 2 p.m. today and we've added a second bus."

Fodchuk provided council with statistics on the wide range of activities across the county, the Mallaig summer program was a huge success, with "30 kids all the time," and Mom and Tots programs in Mallaig and Ashmont having the highest attendance ever.

The seniors' free bus trips have also gone well, and she has found that "Elk Point has a lot more seniors who are mobile" and eager to take part than those from some of the other communities.

Seven block parties attracted 655 people, 10 drive-in movie nights attracted 512 viewers, Elk Point's, on July 1, with the largest attendance of 200, color runs in Ashmont and Mallaig had 70 and 40 participants respectively.

A new website just completed "will bring us a lot of value."

Looking forward, Fodchuk presented the FCSS 2019 strategic plan, and said, "what works, we will keep, what doesn't, we won't."

With goals of making all services affordable and accessible for everyone, providing more opportunity and recognition for volunteerism in communities and creating a sense of community and acceptance for all, Fodchuk says their planning is based on SMART goals: Specific, Measurable, Achievable, Relevant and Time-bound.

County introduces bylaw to prohibit public cannabis use

MEREDITH KERR
Review Contributor

The County of St. Paul gave first reading to Bylaw 2018-20 - Cannabis Consumption Bylaw during the regular council meeting on Nov. 13.

The bylaw prohibits the consumption of cannabis in public places and needs to pass second and third readings at council before it comes into effect.

"Under the bylaw the way it's written, you would be able to smoke at the campground stall you have rented through the county, but anywhere else in the park and anywhere else on the street, anything basically that's outside your home or a lodging you would not be able to smoke," said Kyle Attanasio, Director of Corporate Services for the County of St. Paul.

During discussion of the bylaw, councillors discussed the differences between bylaws passed in the Town of St. Paul and Town of Elk Point. The Town of St. Paul's bylaw prohibits smoking and vaping in any indoor place where the public is normally invited while Elk Point's bylaw is a blanket ban on smoking cannabis in public.

My personal opinion is that it's in provincial and federal jurisdictions, and by adding to it we're just making enforcement a nightmare," said Cliff Martin, councillor for Division 3.

"The interesting thing about cannabis is that it is an intoxicating substance, and the governments don't allow public consumption of alcohol so why would we," said Maxine Fodness, deputy reeve and Division 4 councillor.

"They allow public consumption of this," said

Laurent Amyotte, councillor for Division 6.

"For now. Down the road I can see them changing it because they're going to have to classify it the same as alcohol, it can't be the same as cigarettes," said Dale Hedrick, councillor for Division 5.

"AHS is advising municipalities to err on the side of caution rather than go by the provincial legislation," said Fodness, before making a motion to give the bylaw first reading and asking for a recorded vote.

The bylaw passed first reading 5-2, with councillors Martin and Amyotte voting no.

County of St. Paul administration will draft an addition to the bylaw detailing the penalties for consuming cannabis in a public place before it returns to council for second and third readings at the next regular meeting, scheduled for Dec. 11 at 10 a.m.

Major milestone for Extravaganza partner

VICKI BROOKER
Review Staff

Elk Point Chamber of Commerce has been hosting the Christmas Extravaganza for decades, and in many of those years, the Extravaganza date has coincided with the date of the F. G. Miller High School Crusader Craft and Trade Show and Book Fair. This year, the Book Fair and the Secret Santa Shop for kids only will be open on Friday from 4 to 7 p.m., followed by the screening of Incredibles 2 at 7 p.m. (children under 6 must be accompanied by an adult), followed by the 25th Annual Crusader Craft/Trade Show and Scholastic Book Fair on Saturday, Nov. 24 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m., which will also include a not-so-common petting zoo, bring-your-own-device photos with the Grinch, and entertainment.

The Crusader Craft Show was originally organized by Donna Gulayec, while current coordinator Denise Smereka (now Bjorkman) headed up the book fair. Bjorkman took over the leadership of both at the time of Gulayec's retirement, and is now assisted by Tracy Loughran in the huge task of coordinating this always popular event.

Elk Point and District Chamber of Commerce CHRISTMAS EXTRAVAGANZA

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 23

Extravaganza introduces a new way to win

VICKI BROOKER
Review Staff

Over the years, the Elk Point and District Chamber of Commerce has promoted member businesses with a variety of contests, from a bingo card to draws that were entered with a purchase and involved both in-store draws and the collection of all the draw slips for a final draw for a major prize, which over the years, ranged from Elk Point Bucks to a trip to Disneyland.

Chamber members agreed that the bucks were an excellent way of promoting more shopping locally, and in recent years, the prizes have all had a local focus.

This year, businesses that are chamber members – even those that are not part of the retail sector – will all be part of the first-ever Extravaganza Passport, and are joined by the clubs and organizations that are part of the Nov. 23 activities. Donations toward this year's prize include both gift certificates and merchandise prizes, and are still coming in at press time.

The passports, available at member businesses, are valid only on Friday, Nov. 23, and passport bearers will get one point for going into a participating business and getting a stamp or signature, three points if they bring a friend, and five points if they make a purchase. There are three bonus point-getters as well: 10 points for watching the movie at F. G. Miller High School and getting a signature at the door, 15 points for going to the Elks hockey game and getting a signature at the door, and a whopping 20 points if you track down all four of the Chamber of Commerce executive (president Terri Hampson, vice president Bob Ellacott, treasurer Christine Fenton and secretary Vicki Brooker and get their signatures).

The passport also contains a handy map showing the parade route, tractor-drawn hayride route and location of the events that make up the evening's activities.

The completed passports must be dropped off at the Town of Elk Point office by 4 p.m. on Friday, Nov. 30. Points accumulated will be tabulated and the winner – whoever collects the most points – will be announced during the first week of December.

EDITORIAL

Ho-ho-ho - oh-oh!

Let the season begin!

It's beginning to look like Christmas. Some of us have our lights up, even if we haven't turned it on yet, and our mailboxes are being stuffed with catalogues from mail order businesses we've never heard of, as well as mountains of flyers from local stores.

Many of those catalogues, if you look closely at the small print, will tell you that the prices are in American dollars, and if you look at the order forms that some of them have inside, the shipping charges will make you think you're seeing things. Between the exchange and the shipping and the on-and-off postal strikes, the items may be attractive, but along with being costly, quite likely wouldn't get here on time for Christmas. The address on the back may be Canadian, but the shipping cost shows that isn't the orders' origin.

Just another outstanding reason to shop local!

F. G. MILLER JR.-SR. HIGH SCHOOL marked Remembrance Day on Nov. 9 with a special assembly organized by Mr. Clarke and volunteer students. Kendra Kowerchuk, Grade 10, started the ceremony with O Canada. A poem was read by Alex Duffee, Grade 10, then poppies were placed on the wreath by two students from each grade, as shown above, and two staff representatives. The Last Post was played, two minutes of silence were observed and ended with Reveille. Elisha Sears, Grade 8, and Dakota Havener, Grade 10, each shared a poem. The ceremony ended with Jorja Theriault, Grade 10, and MJ Espinosa, Grade 12, singing the song 'Pittance of Time' (below).

WAY BACK WHEN...

Mural installed, community remembers, healthy workplace

HERE'S THE NEWS THAT MADE THE HEADLINES OF THE LAKELAND REVIEW AND ELK POINT REVIEW FOR THE WEEK OF NOV. 19 IN...

1988

Medal decked veteran Lawrence Garneau placed the Royal Canadian Legion's wreath at the cenotaph as a large and shivering crowd paid tribute to those who served their country in two world wars and the Korean War. One hundred feet of local history was lifted onto the supporting pipes as Elk Point's mural was installed in the park west of the public library.

1993

Legion president Louis Verhagen said that the large crowd filling the Seniors' Recreation Centre on Remembrance Day made it "very evident that this community does not forget." A group of Agricultural Society members and volunteers weighing in at a total of 3,159 pounds gathered pledges for each pound lost before April, to gain funds for the society.

1998

Exactly 80 years after the armistice was signed to end World War I, more than 200 Elk Point and district residents crowded around the Royal Canadian Legion cenotaph to celebrate peace and to honour those who made it possible. The Town of Elk Point agreed to join the town and County of St. Paul and the town and County of Smoky Lake to form a regional landfill authority.

Legion secretary Genevieve Russell made presentations of financial aid to Heritage Lodge, Elk Point and District Ambulance, STARS and Santas Anonymous during the annual Remembrance Day ceremonies. Town council voted four to one to join to sign a five-year contract with the Alberta Urban Municipalities Association for their Energy Aggregation Program.

The Elk Point Review publishes a variety of opinions as a contribution to debate on matters of public concern. Unsigned editorials express the view of this newspaper's editorial board which includes the Publisher and the Editor. Signed pieces express the view of the individual writer.

More than 30 wreaths banked the Elk Point cenotaph on a cloudy morning 90 years after armistice was declared on 'the war to end all wars,' as Elk Point marked Remembrance Day. Elk Point Healthcare Centre was declared one of the healthiest places to work in Alberta and was one of eight employers honoured with a Premier's Award for Healthy Workplaces.

Mona McGinnis visited the newly elected town council on behalf of the Early Childhood Development Committee, introducing them to the group's project, a mapping initiative that started in 2011, "looking for the strengths and gaps in programs and services for children from birth to five years old."

TOWN PAYS TRIBUTE - Deputy Mayor Bernice Capjack placed a wreath honouring the efforts of all who served in two world wars, the Korean War and other conflicts and peacekeeping missions, as part of the 2913 Remembrance Day ceremonies at the Elk Point Cenotaph.

Council

A total of 23 items in their 2019 action plan all concur with the SMART goals, and cover projects for all age groups from Welcome Baby packages to the Elk Point Ambassador program to seniors' income tax preparation to coordination of Meals on Wheels.

Fodchuk has applied for grants for a new program this year involving resource workers mentoring the youth in the community and "walking them through their issues." Some youth are homeless, she said "Just be aware, it does happen in your community. There's something lacking, they can't get to the resources to get what they need."

LED lights

Council's second delegation at last week's meeting involved Brent Labrie and Treena Cardinal of ATCO Electric, who brought a wealth of information on LED street lights and how replacing the current high pressure sodium (HPS) lights with LED would save up to 65 per cent of energy use, as well as reducing carbon dioxide production. Elk Point currently has 167 HPS street lights that are 'non-invested' meaning that they are owned by ATCO, the town does not pay a maintenance fee but is responsible to pay for replacement or repair. There are also 60 'invested' lights, also ATCO-owned, on which the town does pay the fee and is not responsible for the cost of replacement and repair. Labrie noted that when the current non-invested lights fail, they will be replaced by LEDs and will automatically become invested.

Cardinal noted the replacement comes with a significant cost, up from $18.11 per month to $42.17 per month for the LEDs, but would save the maintenance costs and reduce energy use.

CAO Ken Gwozdz told the ATCO representatives that the cost would be coming forward at the town's upcoming budget meetings. "It's not cheap, but maybe we could chip away at it," he noted, replying to Cardinal's information that ATCO prefers to change over an entire community, with all the cost up front.

Mayor Lorne Young said the biggest problem "is coming up with the up-front money. It's a double whammy," when including the increased monthly cost.

Labrie said Elk Point's downtown area, where failing underground wiring has for some time been replaced by overhead wires, "could be something to start at."

Young told the representatives that the town is also interested in ATCO's broadband Internet component, and asked them to provide information on that in the future.

Public hearing

A public hearing held prior to the regular council meeting brought no opposition by phone, mail or in person to an application to rezone a parcel of land containing the former Elk Point United Church from Institutional to C1 Commercial. The final two readings were given to the bylaw, with Coun. Tim Smereka, owner of the property, excused from council chambers for both the public hearing and the passage of the bylaw.

Bylaw amendments

Changes to the town's procedural bylaw brought forward at the Oct. 22 organizational meeting regarding placement of correspondence on council agenda and a change of wording to comply with the new Municipal Government Act were given all three readings.

Bylaw rescinded

A long-ignored bylaw from 1971 that required town council minutes to be printed in the local newspaper was rescinded. It was noted that the minutes now appear on the town's website, and in fact have not been printed in the newspaper in decades.

Future NHL prospects hit ice for first game

This sounds like a Tim Horton's story. Do you realize somewhere in Canada this past weekend, some parent is tying skates for their child's very first hockey game and in about 15 years from now that same player will be playing in the NHL? Crazy, but it's true!

Our very own little Micro Novice stars played in their very first hockey game this past Saturday morning and the stands were full of fans. Parents, grandparents, other siblings and friends, all up early and down at the rink for the 8:30 a.m. start. Out of eight little Avalanche players there's only one veteran from last year, Lennox 'All Out' St. Arnault. He was buzzing around and around, along with the first timers, Tor Aarbo, 'General Lee' Barstad, Zander Goertzen, Everett Hahn, Hudson Krankowsky, Stetson Reynolds and Jaydn Sakowsky. Next week this team has another early start, same time, but this time in St. Paul. I bet there's going to be a few grandparents stopping at Timmy's along the way.

The Novice Hurricanes played against Mallaig at home right after the Micro Novice on Saturday. Works out well when you can set up the half ice boards and play back to back games. Lots of scoring in this one the Avalanche winning 11 to 8, 'Wild Wyatt' Fontaine with a hat trick. Remington 'Steel' Reynolds with two goals and three assists. Jaxon 'Smitty' Smith with two goals and two assists, 'Jesse James' Penner with one goal, Kestyn Quinney with one goal and two assists, William 'Billy Bob' Ballas with one goal and one assist, Jackson 'JR' Rawlake with an assist, Denys 'the Menace' Kuba with a goal, Jaxon 'Magic' Marcoux with an assist. Theo 'Longhorn' Loughran with some end to end rushes, Ryder 'Rhino' Malo with some great defensive shot blocks. On Sunday the Novice team travelled to Bonnyville to play a full ice game against all their second year players. Although they were beaten on the scoreboard, the Avalanche never threw in the towel, and with some terrific goal-tending by 'Major Tom' Melnyk, held their own for most of the game. Remington 'Steel' Reynolds with a goal, 'Wild Wyatt' with two goals and an assist.

Review Sports

The Avalanche Atom and Pee wee teams played back to back games in St. Paul this past Saturday. This works out really well for a number of the parents who have players on both teams. First up was the Atoms who after starting the game down by one, stormed back in the second and third period and won this one 5 to 1. Madden 'Mad Dog' Flamand with two goals, the first one to tie the game at one just before the end of the first period, then added an insurance goal late in the third period. Evett 'Snoop Dog' Smereka with two goals, Kaysen 'Dynamite' DeMossiac blasting one into the cage. Helping out the cause not only defensively on the blue line, the D-men 'Boe Dog' St. George, 'Notorious Nolan' Ballas and Rhyley Kozicky all with the assists.

Next up was the Pee wee game that turned into a real nail biter right to the bitter end, the Avalanche victorious with a 3 to 2 win at the final buzzer. 'Top Gunner' Crawford with the first goal assisted by Seth 'Motor Man' Morton, and then the 'Motor Man' would score assisted by 'Top Gunner', two all the score after the first period. Back and forth in the second period the teams were still deadlocked at two after forty minutes. Halfway through the third period, with a lot of determined effort, the hero of the day, Ryan 'Ram Rod' Cameron would finally find the twine with one, assisted by 'Top Gunner' and Sam 'Spiderman' Rogal, the Avalanche now taking the one goal lead and holding on to it for the remainder of the game. But not without some pretty big timely saves by the goalie 'Kid Kade' Fontaine and some extra help from 'Stellar Ella' Ballas who blocked a shot in the dying minutes then cleared the puck out of the zone, otherwise the Canadiens would have been on course for clear sailing right in on top of the 'Kid' and who knows what may have happened. And we also would like to mention this hard working trio who kept the pressure on, fore-checking and working the corners by Brayden 'Pinball' Pinette, Kaleb 'Formula One' Flamand and 'Bo Diddle' Fontaine.

Sometimes you come out on top of these tight games and some times you come up with the short straw, as was the case with the Midget Avalanche who lost a real close battle with the Marwayne Sled Dogs here at home on Sunday afternoon 5 to 4. On a tear and doing his part, Nick 'Sparky' Anderson lighting the lamp with a hat trick. He also added an assist on the goal by Jace 'the Stafford Streak' who hammered one home and dedicated it to his recently deceased Pappa Leo. Chase 'Rink Rat' Dorey, Hank 'the Tank' Rogal and Hayden 'Hot Wheels' Ludlage all with two assists each, 'Danny Boy' Cardinal also adding a helper. Goalie Colton 'Colt 45' Van Maarion was busy with 36 shot on goal, the Avalanche replied with only 28. Not to use this as an excuse, but it should be mentioned that the Avalanche were down two players due to suspensions. And what is really weird, they only had one two-minute penalty in this whole game for tripping. Strange but true!

Local Lions headed to football Provincials

Some really great news coming out of St. Paul on Saturday, the Lions Football team defeated Stettler 20 to 10 and will now advance to the provincial final this coming weekend in Fort Mc Murray. Good luck to our local boys, 'Danny Boy' Cardinal, Hank 'the Tank' and Charlie 'Chuckles' Rogal, Odin 'the Wall' Smith and 'Ty Cobb' Smereka. (Sorry, no picture available).

And now for the K. A. Campbell quote of the week. "It's not necessarily the amount of time you put into practice that counts; it's what you put into the practice." - Eric Lindros

Elks win on roadVICKI BROOKER
Review Staff

Elk Point Elks traveled to Maidstone, SK on Saturday night and came home with a 4-1 win over the Maidstone Jets. Once again, the Elks had a rather short bench which included some affiliate players from the Lac La Biche Clippers, but they played hard for the win.

The game got off to a slow start score-wise, with a scoreless first period, but the Elks made up for it early in the second, answering Maidstone's only goal with two of their own, Kam Ballas assisted by Thomas Cardinal and Warren Ference, Ryley Wozniak assisted by Dyson Karbaszewski and Ballas. The Elks added another pair in the second half of the final frame, affiliate player Isaac Barr scoring off Ference and Ballas, and Karbaszewski assisted by Wozniak.

This week the Elks will host the Paradise Hill Hawks at 8:30 p.m. Friday to wrap up the 2018 Christmas Extravaganza.

County changes plowing policyMEREDITH KERR
Review Contributor

County council voted unanimously to approve changes to the "Snowplowing of Driveways Policy" PW-55, following an increase to the fee in the fee schedule bylaw.

The fee for each flag had previously been $20, but was increased to $25.

Most other changes were wording changes to clarify the intention of the policy.

County residents who want their driveways plowed must purchase the flag and post it on the rural address sign at the driveway entrance as well as sign the Snowplow Agreement stating they will clearly mark the route for the plow and will pay the appropriate fees.

Seniors, disabled persons, and residents who live at the end of a school bus route where the bus needs to enter the yard to turn around, are all exempt from the flag fee.
